THE CHEAPEST YET .- The NEWS Job Office is now printing bill-heads in the best style and on fine paper, at $250 per thousand. Merchants, think

CATHEDRAL CHAPEL .- A requiem high mass will be celebrated this morning in the Cathedral Chapel, at 9 o'clock, for the repose of the Rev Father Dunn, who was formerly a zealous priest in the diocese of Charleston, and who died recently in Philadelphia. The friends and acquain tances of this worthy ecclesiastic are requested to

THE LATE MAJOR BURROUGHS .- The remains of Major Geo. Burroughs, of the Engineer Corps, U. S. A., will be taken from the Post Hospital, in Tradd street, to-day at 12 o'clock, to the steamer Saragossa. There will be no military display, by request, but the body will be taken in charge by brother of the deceased, who arrived from the North a few days since.

MAKETZEK'S OPERA TROUPE.—This compan has had a remarkably successful season in Baltimore as in New York, and in Philadelphia where a little personal spleen seems to have caused the newspaper critics to say all that they could against the troupe, is drew fine houses Miss Kellogg has a world wide reputation; Lefane, the tenor, has a voice of large compass and

SALE OF STEAMERS .- The steamers Fannie and Marion, the property of the late Captain John Ferguson, were sold at public outcry yesterday by Messrs, Leitch & Bruns. The Fannie sold fet $8650, and the Marion for $6250. The Marion ha been purchased by Mr. H. W. Tilton, and Captain Adair will continue to run the boat in the Santee trade. The Fannie will probably be retained for PRIVATE IMPROVEMENTS .- The Tucker House, better known perhaps as the Hampstead Hospi tol, was recently purchased by Mr. Henry Bischoff and the building and extensive grounds fitted up by him as a private dwelling. This house occuples the extreme northeast section of the city proper, and is one of the first landmarks that catches the 'eye of a stranger coming to the city on the Northeastern Railroad.

OUR PRICES CURRENT .- We especially invite the attention of our merchants to THE NEWS with the utmost care, and handsomely printed with entirely new type, it forms, with the bush ness card of the house forwarding it, the most attractive and welcome weekly commercial cir cular that can be used. Price, for ten copies or more, with business cards two and a half cent per copy; single copies five cents.

AN UNPLEASANT RUMOR .- It is rumored that Manager Ford is considering the feasibility of closing the Academy of Music for a short time, and concentrating his dramatic forces in Augus ta and other points where the companies now playing are drawing crowded houses. We trust that for once this is but one of Dame Rumor's baseless reports, and that the Charleston publi will convince Mr. Ford that they not only appre ciate the theatrical amusements that have been presented, but can and will certainly offer a bet ter patronage to any histrionic performance that Augusta or other inland towns can beast.

To-NIGHT .- At the Academy of Music to-night man sisters. Blanche Chapman plays "Mrs. Del maine" in the Serious Family, and "Cinderella in the burlesque of that name. Ella Chapman plays "Dandini" in Cinderella. The great Bishop plays "Amindab Sleek" and the gushing "Clorinda." The Chapmans, on account of the weather, have had but poor houses this week, and to prove to "The Violets of the Stage" how popu lar they are. They have, in the "Serious Family," and in "Cinderella," an opportunity of displaying to advantage their peculiar powers, and Bishop

PAUL PRY .- An indignant friend of Chief Constable Hubbard demanded to know vester day whether that official was the person spoken of in this terse sentence-"Paul Pry in Charleston Look out," which appeared in a dozen different places in THE NEWS of Wednesday. Chief Constable Hubbard may be a "Paul Pry," but cer tainly is not the "Paul Pry," who is one of the best fellows and most telling actors in this world below, and who may be seen at the Academy o Music to-morrow. PANORAMA OF NEW YORK .- To-day, at three o'clock, at the Hibernian Hall, the panorama of New York City gives its first exhibition, and exhibits every afternoon and night to Wednesday night next, inclusive, at 3 and 8 o'clock. The Macon (Ga.) Telegraph says :

Raiston Hall was well filled yesterday afternoon Raiston Hall was well filled yesterday afternoon by the pupils and teachers of the various schools of the city, to witness Bullard's great panorama of New York, and at night the hall was again crowded by all classes of citizens. As a specimen of art it is, perhaps, unsurpassed by anything of the kind in the United States. Everything the artist touched with his pencil is presented in a most striking and lifelike manner. And, then, then the proceeding instructive and at times highly most striking and lifelike manner. And, then, the interesting, instructive, and at times highly amusing lecture, which accompanies the passing panorama, almost makes the spectator believe that he is riding along Broadway in a pheton, with some intelligent and well-posted friend, who is pointing out and calling his attention to all objects on either side worth a passing notice. We advise all who have not done so to go and see this wonderful triumph of art, and thoroughly post themselves on the beauties, mysteries, miseries and wonders of Gotham.

CRUMBS .- The trial of the new organ or Wednesday night, at the Church of the Holy Commution, was concluded by singing the doxology in which the entire assemblage joined. It is stated that nearly ten miles of plankroad have been laid in this city by the present admin-The stores that have been constructed on the Bay since the war are furnished with cellars in which the draimage is perfect, thus avoiding the overflows that the older buildings are subjected to. That portion of State street adjoining Broad is now receiving attention from the hands of Captain Jenks, the street inspector.

The Sumter Watchman says: "The same night on which the trial of our injured citizens, for the burning of the stores of Robertson and DuBose, was concluded, the ginhouse of Major T. B. Frazer was reduced to ashes, and on the following night that of Dr. J. B. Witherspoon shared the same fate. Is there a hope of Executive proclamation offering reward for the incendiaries? We shall see." The Savannah River reached its turning point on Tuesday night, and at 3 P. M., on Wednesday, was sixteen feet, three inches at the Toll Bridge. The Columbia Guardian says: "DeLarge, who

AFFAIRS IN GEORGIA.

The Georgia Senate transacted no business n Tuesday, but the House met and organized. Donaldson, of Gordon; Taliaferro, of Fulton, and Nunn, of Glasscock, were declared ineligible, and sixteen seats were declared vacant, viz: those of Burtz, Brinson, Bennett, George, Goff, Hudson, Johnson, Kellogg, Meadows, Perland, Surrency, Smith, H. Williams, Drake, Ellis and Rouse, who, failing to come forward and qualify, are declared ineligible; and, the order goes on to say, they have admitted their ineligibility by filing with Bullock applications to Congress for the removal of their disabilities.

proceeded to the election of speaker, voting, by order of Bullock, viva voce. 133 votes were cast. Necessary to a choice, 67. McWhorter 76, Bryant 52. Price 4. John Smith 1. McWhorter was elected by the Democrats no eing united in their votes. McWhorter to the chair. Scott made a short speech, not committing himself to any special line of policy.

The Republicans will have probably a majority of eight in the House. Nothing is known as to the decision of the mill-tary inquisition in regard to the senators accused of ineligibility. CHAMPAGNE BATHS.

A gentleman recently from Washington, and who was there while Bullock was cutting up his highest jinks, informed a member of the Legisla ture that the supper Bullock gave Butler and other Radicals, to celebrate the passage of the Georgia bill, cost five thousand dollars: and that Bullock, in order to keep up during the night and day sessions of Congress, took three champagne baths at seventy-five dollars each. Who pays? THROUGH CARS.

The Augusta Constitutionalist noticed on Tues day, in the Georgia Railroad yard, a couple of excellent freight cars, from the Richmond and Danville Railroad, shipped via the Charlotte, Columbia and Augusta Railroad, en route to Atlanta. These cars are of 18,000 pounds capacity, and are mounted upon trucks to which have been applied "Tisdale's patent adjustable Axles," susceptible of ch. :ge to suit the various gauges of the roads from Richmond to their destination and beyond-indeed, to any gauge of road over which they may be running. They are marked for the Piedmont Air Line, which connects with Richmond, Charlotte, Columbia, Augusta, Atlanta, Savannah, Macon, Montgomery and Mobile. The application of this axle will go far to promote the advantage of shipment in bulk over roads of different gauge, and commends itself to railroad

A BLOODY AFRRAY. The Dahlonega Signal says that a bloody affray took place on Wednesday, of last week, on the Black Mountain Road, about three or four miles north of that place, between Scion Cochran and J. K. and Bear John Woody, in which Bear John Woody was instantly killed, and J. K. was very severely, though perhaps not fatally, cut in the side by Cochran. The cause of the difficulty was purely of a family matter, and can be in no way construed as arising from politics, as all the par ties concerned were Republicans.

THE MARION .- This steamer, Captain Adair, will receive freight to-morrow, at Accommodation wharf, for Wright's Bluff and intermediate landings, and will leave with dispatch.

BUSINESS ENVELOPES .- THE NEWS Job Office is now prepared to furnish good envelopes, with business cards printed thereon, at $4 per thousand. Send your orders. Every merchant and business man should have his card printed on his

REAL ESTATE SALES .- Messrs Leitch & Bruns sold, yesterday, a two and a half story wooden dwelling, with piazza and outbuildings, on the north side of Green street, for $2800. Mr. Z. B. Oakes sold the business stand at the northeast corner of Broad and King streets for

A three story brick store and dwelling on King street, adjoining the above, for $1925. A two story brick dwelling on the west side of ling, below Broad street, for $2300.

Mr. A. C. McGillivray sold a house on the south side of Charlotte street for $3500. By Hutson Lee, a house and lot on Wall street for $565. A NOBLE CHARITY AND SPLENDID ENTER-TAINMENT .- The performance at the Academy of Music to-morrow afternoon is a remarkable one in itself, but, by way of piling Pelion on Ossa, the "double bill" to-night will be a good chance | Manager Ford gives notice that "the entire receipts (without any deduction for expenses) fro children, will be given to the Widows' Home." Of this excellent food too highly." Sold in tins of this noble charity, we need not say a word of praise. It is the one which touches most acutely the sympathies of our people. And it will be a pleasant thing for all the "little ones" to know that each one of them who goes to the Academy to-morrow afternoon, will be putting the price of admis sion directly into the coffers of the Home of which they have heard so much. This will give jest to the amusement, and a heartier ring to their merry laugh. Let the Academy be filled with children, and the inmates of the Home for the mothers wives and daughters of the Confederate dead will have cause to bless the day.

THE ACADEMY OF MUSIC.-The unfavorable weather of last evening prevented a large attendance at the Academy of Music, but those who braved the elements were fully compensated, for a greater carnival of fun has seldom been witnessed. The acting was broadly funny, and the audience took the witticisms, and enjoyed the humor of the play fully. The opening piece, Buckstone's comedy of "Married Life," was capitally rendered, and the denouement was a convincing proof that "mantrimony is a dangerous thing." Bishop was as usual sublimely funny, but the honors were equally sustained by Blanche Chapman and Mr. Kennedy. Ixion is an acknowledged favorite on the boards, and is one of the specialties of the present troupe. It was impossible to restrain laughter at the broad comicalities of "Minerva" (Bishop;) but Mercury (Ella Chapman) was the bright particular star who took the house by storm and captivated the hearts of her hearers. She was encored three times on the opening song, and the "Tassels on the Boots" was given in such a manner that even the elder and sedate business men in the audience threw aside their dignity for the nonce and joined heartily in the applause. "Ixion" is one of the broadest and most mirth-provoking of all burlesques, in which no opportunity is lost to present those points of local significance that can never fail to provoke the risibles irresistibly.
